

New England HOME

Celebrating Fine Design, Architecture, and Building

THE NEW MOOD:
COZY, CHIC &
COMFORTABLE

Perspectives

Style Scheme

All Dressed Up: She Says

"Do you remember that scene in Sex and the City when Mr. Big builds the dressing room for Carrie?" asks Jess Cooney. "For a lot of women, a dressing room is the epitome of luxury." A trip to Portland, Maine's Angela Adams showroom inspired this dressing room; that's where Cooney first saw the desk that she repurposes as a vanity. The majority of the room's components are made locally. "I do what I can to keep my clients' money in their community," Cooney says. | Jess Cooney Interiors, Great Barrington, Mass., jesscooney.com

| EDITED BY ERIKA AYN FINCH |

| 1. Tulum in Blossom fabric, Peter Fasano, Great Barrington, Mass., peterfasano.com | 2. Chip off the Block bench, Annie Selke, Lenox, Mass., annieselke.com | 3. Olympia mirror by Arteriors, Delicious Designs, Hingham, Mass., deliciousdesigns.com | 4. Noor lamp in white quartz glaze by Stone and Sawyer, available through the designer | 5. Prisma jewelry stand in matte brass by Umbra, Faces, Northampton, Mass., facesmainstreet.com | 6. Lily desk, Angela Adams, Portland, Maine, angelaadams.com | 7. Mirage Smoke chaise in pearl grey estate linen, Annie Selke | 8. Versailles Maze vase by Jonathan Adler, Barneys, Boston, barneys.com | 9. Aurora woven cotton rug, Annie Selke | 10. Feather Bloom wallcovering in Venetian pink by Schumacher, Schumacher, Boston, fschumacher.com | 11. Kilpatrick tall cabinet by Arteriors, Delicious Designs